Learnings from the movie 'one idiot'

- Kharcha Jabardasti Hai...
- If you buy things which are not required, you would have to sell things which are required.
- People living on credit - creating worry
- Spend time thinking money and the way you deal with it
- Future is not the extrapolation of past (sales people selling financial products based on historical returns)
- Asset allocation is critical - Equity, Debt etc
- Don't mix financial products - insurance, investment, tax savings etc
- Live your life your way...
