Report of the Programme

The department of Management Studies (PG) has organised a guest lecture on “Need of Management skill in current scenario” on 20.07.2019. The guest speaker was Dr.Shilpa Gopal, Associate Professor, Dept of Management Studies, NIT, Trichy. She has delivered a brief lecture on the various managerial skill which is essential to fulfill the current need of the recruiters and labour market. She also gave tips to the students on how to enrich the potential capacities to become an entrepreneur. Her motivational speech was excellent which made the students to realize their strengths and also it encourages them to overcome their obstacles to shine as a good manager.

She also insisted the students to possess the following skills:

- Good communication and interpersonal skills including ability to develop and maintain good relationships.
- Attention to detail and strong planning and organisational skills.
- Strong interpersonal skills and ability to interact well with and influence other teams.

Her session was very impressive and interesting as she involved the students in role play. Group Discussions and Management games. The real facet of a business man was portrayed in the session. The session really moved the students by inspiring and sparking in them a zest to aim achieve the target in their life. The efficiency and energetic mental strength of the students to develop into a young and blooming personality was focused. She shared the life experience of many business legends, the session proved to be beneficial to the students by getting information through video clippings. The guest conducted many managerial games where the students have showed their active participation and involvement. The overall concept of the lecture was to expose and express one's managerial skill and efficiency in the working environment by giving importance to develop positive attitude and to inculcate a good HR strategy.
